Topic Title: Adverse Childhood Experiences
(ACEs) and Family Trauma in Primary Care
Practice

Presenter: Dr. Matt Hirschfeld, MD, PhD
Medical Director-Maternal Child Health Services at Alaska Native Medical Center

This activity is designed to change physician and clinical competencies, practice
performance, and improve patient outcomes
through the following objectives:

1. Providers will be able to draw sound conclusions and relate to the science and biology underlying ACEs.
2. Providers will be able to validate what screening tools are being used to assess ACEs.
3. Providers will be able to distinguish what Alaska is doing to improve systems to help families who identify a professional position on ACEs.
